Terry Aikin
EVP Strategic Growth

When every basis point matters, your hedge advisor should know your business and not just your account number. Trusted for our consistency across every market cycle, we deliver measurable results that protect pipelines and strengthen performance—no matter how the market moves.

The Vice Capital Difference

Deep Market Expertise

Our team has successfully managed interest rate risk on more than $1 trillion in mortgage-backed security trades and mortgage-related transactions since 2001.

Client-Centric Approach

Important decisions deserve immediate conversations, so every client has direct access to our executive leadership and senior traders. You'll never reach our voicemail.

Fully Aligned Execution

We trade only on your behalf, compensated by you alone. When the market improves after we hit a bid, that gain belongs to your P&L.
